

Special event: June 14-18th 2021

We are delighted to invite you to a series of meetings for ELT professionals:

Looking forward: Tools and strategies for building successful ELT courses.

This is a week of events with Pearson authors and ELT consultants showcasing ideas, new materials and techniques for online and in-class teaching scenarios.

There will also be 4 other events in June and July to explore further some of these themes.

Use the link to register for one or all, depending on your areas of interest. We will follow up with the programme and Zoom invitations.

Please share with fellow teachers at your school or faculty.
