Below the header, the background is a blurred image of a woman with glasses. The main text reads: "Let's find out your level". Below this, it says: "We just need you to answer a few questions. It'll take you about 30 minutes. As soon as you finish, we'll tell you your Wall Street English level. Are you ready? To get started, tell us how much English you already know." There are three white boxes with icons: a paper plane (orange), a jet (blue and red), and a rocket (blue and red).
