St. David's Worksheet

2. Read about Wales and St. David's Day.

Wales is part of Britain and the United Kingdom. It is about half the size of Switzerland and its national colours are white, red and green. St. David is the patron Saint of Wales. He helped the Welsh people to defeat the Saxons and so every year Welsh people celebrate St. David's Day on 1st March. St David died on 1st March 589 AD. They have parades in the street and concerts; they wear daffodils and leeks on their clothes and wave The Red Dragon flag. The Welsh people are very proud of their national heritage. Why not visit Wales for the St. David's Day celebrations? You can go to a concert and listen to musicians playing the harp, you can try and sing along to some traditional songs and even try a little bit of Welsh dancing. Maybe you could even buy a traditional Welsh costume: a tall black hat and a red cloak. To see more examples of Welsh clothes and artefacts, visit the National Museum in Cardiff.

Teacher's Notes

1. Before exercise 1, ask the students what they know about Wales. Write any information they give you on the board. If possible, show them exactly where Wales is on a map. Draw some pictures of the Welsh national symbols on the board and ask the students if they can identify them. Then, hand out the worksheets and ask students to match each picture to the right words.

- a. 1
- b. 4
- c. 3
- d. 2

2&3. If you have the chance you can incorporate a digital literacy activity into this exercise (use IWB if you have them in class or the computers in the school library). Put children into groups and ask them to find out 6 facts about Wales using the www.wales.com website. If you don't have computer access just go straight into the reading exercise. When the children have read the text, ask some comprehension check questions such as 'is Wales in England?' before asking them to complete exercise 3.

- a. false
- b. false
- c. false
- d. true
- e. true
- f. false
- g. false
- h. false

4. This exercise can be graded for various class abilities.

Weaker students: Give them the first half of the sentence- 'Wales is part of .....

Average students: 'Wales is...'

Strong students: no prompts
