

Word of the Month: EASY-GOING

By Sarah Gudgeon

1 Tick six adjectives that can be used to describe a friend.

Kind   funny   delicious   sweet   honest   loyal   easy-going

2 Write each friendship adjective from exercise 1 next to the correct definition.

- a. Always tells the truth.
- b. Makes you laugh.
- c. Is always calm and relaxed
- d. Is gentle and caring
- e. Helps you and shares things too

3 Write five more things a friend should not be. Use a dictionary to help you.

For example:

mean

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____

4 Describe your best friend. Describe his/ her good and bad qualities.

Use these prompts to help you.

My best friend is called _____

He/ She is _____ (good qualities) but sometimes he/ she is _____ (bad qualities).

We usually _____

Answer Key

By Sarah Gudgeon

1

Tick all of them apart from 'delicious'. Delicious is used to describe really good food.

2

- a. Always tells the truth. HONEST
- b. Makes you laugh. FUNNY
- c. Is always calm and relaxed EASY-GOING
- d. Is gentle and caring SWEET
- e. Helps you and shares things too KIND

3 Example adjectives.

- 1. A dishonest
- 2. boring
- 3. unkind
- 4. a bad listener
- 5. a gossip
- 6. vain
- 7. selfish.