

Word of the Month: CHILLY

By Sarah Gudgeon

1. Write the six weather words in the umbrella.

It's ...

spitting

frozen

a scorcher

drizzling

heat

breezy chilly

shining

bright

2.

a. Complete the weather reports with adjectives from exercise 1..

London

Today, it's.....

b. Look out of the window. Can you use any of today's adjectives to describe the weather?

3. Complete this rhyme. Use these words:

breezy      chilly      bright      silly      easy      door

It's _____ and warm today

Who knows, tomorrow...

It might be cool and _____.

Predicting the weather isn't _____

But one thing's for sure In England, it's often wet and _____

So always stop at the _____

And take your umbrella

To go out without one

Would just be very _____

Teacher's Notes

1. spitting a scorcher - drizzling breezy - chilly bright

2. Today, it's.....drizzling/ spitting.....chilly ....and breezy.

3.

It's bright and warm today

Who knows, tomorrow...

It might be cool and breezy.

Predicting the weather isn't easy

But one thing's for sure

In England, It's often wet and chilly

So always stop at the door

And take your umbrella

To go out without one

Would just be very silly