

Time Will Tell

Idiom of the month

a cura di Sarah Gudgeon

Edizione Maggio 2019

1. Circle four things that we don't know about people when they are babies.

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------|
| 1. Name | 4. Future wealth |
| 2. Future job | 5. Future health |
| 3. Future talents | 6. Age |

2a. Read

Do you think Mickey Junior will be a great athlete?

He's only 6 months old!

I know, but he's very active.

Time will tell.

2b. Complete

We don't know what kind of person James will be

When we have to wait for the future to understand a person's actions or the results of something, we say 'Time will tell'.

3. Read these idioms. Match each idiomatic phrase (a – f) to the correct definition (1 – 6).

a. We don't know what's in store for us at the new summer camp.

1... the future is positive...

b. I'm so happy about my scholarship- the future looks bright.

2... we will understand in the future...

c. Exciting things are just around the corner.

3... what is waiting...

d. We don't know how good this new learning technology is – time will tell.

4... very very soon...

5... going to happen very soon...

e. Our exam results will arrive any day now.

4. Complete these sentences with an idiom from exercise 3.

a. I try to stay positive when bad things happen, because good things are usually.....

b. We can't decide if our new neighbor is nice or not.....

c. This is my first day at this school, I have no idea for me.

d. My mum is expecting my new baby sister
.....

e. Rachel started a university degree last week. Her
.....

5. Is there anything in your future that you are not sure about? Something that only time will tell? Talk to a partner.

Teacher's Notes

1. Circle 2, 3, 4, 5

2b. Complete

We don't know what kind of person James will be- time will tell.

3. Match each idiomatic phrase to the correct definition.

a3 - b1 - c5 - d2 - e4

4. Complete the sentences with an idiom from exercise 3.

a. I try to stay positive when bad things happen, because good things are usually just around the corner.

b. We can't decide if our new neighbour is nice or not - time will tell.

c. This is my first day at this school, I have no idea what's in store for me.

d. My mum is expecting my new baby sister any day now.

e. Rachel started a university degree last week. Her future looks bright.