

Scary Consequences

A group storytelling activity.

- Explain the meaning of consequence, i.e. one thing happens as a result of another.
- Give each student a piece of A4 paper, and make sure they have a pen.
- Give the first instruction. You can write this on the board:

Write: A _____ (This must be a male 'person' or creature e.g. werewolf, bat, zombie, frog, etc.) at the top of your paper. Then fold it over so it can't be seen and pass the paper to the next student.

- The give the second instruction:

Write: met a _____ (This must be a female person e.g. witch, or creature)

Again they must fold over the paper and pass to the next student.

- Thirdly they must write:

at _____. (A place) Fold and pass.

- Next:

They were eating _____. Fold and pass.

- Then:

He said to her " _____." (A sentence spoken by the male to the female) Fold and pass.

- Next:

She said to him " _____." (A sentence spoken by the female to the male) Fold and pass.

- Finally:

The consequence was _____. (Something that happened as a result of the meeting)

- Once complete, the class can unfold the pieces of paper and read the stories. Ask them to read aloud any very funny ones.
