

Idiom of the Month: IT RUNS IN THE FAMILY

By Sarah Gudgeon

1. Write two more things that people from the same family can have in common.

- a. a nice smile
- b. hair / eye colour
- c. good at maths
- d. a sense of humour
- e.
- f.

2.

a. Read

Wow! Look at your maths score, Jennifer!

I know! I got top marks, mum.

It must run in the family. I was very good at maths in high school.

b. Complete:

Jason is really good-looking and so is his sister. Good looks must

3. Read these family idioms and match each one to the correct meaning.

- | | |
|---|---|
| a. Marta is the apple of her dad's eye ; he adores her. | 1. opposites |
| b. Andrew and his dad love all the same hobbies and are like best friends. Andrew's a real chip off the old block . | 2. something that is genetic |
| c. Frankie and his brother Tom are like chalk and cheese : Frankie is loud and funny but Tom is very quiet and never speaks. | 3. when a child is loved unconditionally by a parent |
| d. Jackie and her mum are both very tall and skinny; it must run in the family . | 4. when a child is just like their mother or father in their ways |
| e. Elizabeth is the spitting image of her mum: they've got the same eyes and nose, the same hair colour and they are even the same height. | 5. identical |
| f. Annabel and Olivia are like two peas in a pod : it's hard to tell them apart. | 6. looks very similar to someone |

4. Complete the sentences using idioms from exercise 3:

- a. Lucy and Emma are like: Lucy loves outdoor sports but Emma is a real home lover. She prefers to stay in and read.
- b. Marcus is the of his dad's brother, Uncle Frank. They have the same hair and features.
- c. Damien and his brother Andy are: the teacher can't tell them apart in class and gets their names mixed up.
- d. Cristina is very good at foreign languages, just like her dad. It must.....
..... Her brother is good at science, just like their mum.
- e. Phil is the..... dad's His dad spends all his free time playing with him or planning stuff they can do together.
- f. Jane is passionate about old cars, just like her dad. She's and they often go to car rallies at the weekends.

5. Answer these questions:

a. Who are you the spitting image of in your family? Anyone or no-one?

.....

b. What runs in your family?

.....

6. Think about someone in your family who is like chalk to your cheese. Tell a partner about them.

Teacher's Notes

1. Free answer. Students can write something like: facial features, a bad temper, etc.

2b. Complete

Jason is really good-looking and so is his sister. Good looks must run in the family.

3. Match the family idioms to their correct meaning.

a. 3 b. 4 c. 1 d. 2 e. 6 f. 5

Ask the students some questions to elicit use of the idioms after they have completed the sentences to enable freer practice. For example:

Tell your partner about something that runs in your family.

4. Complete using idioms from exercise 3.

- a. Lucy and Emma are like chalk and cheese: Lucy loves outdoor sports but Emma is a real home lover. She prefers to stay in and read.
- b. Marcus is the spitting image of his dad's brother, Uncle Frank. They have the same hair and features.
- c. Damien and his brother Andy are like two peas in a pod: the teacher can't tell them apart in class and gets their names mixed up.
- d. Cristina is very good at foreign languages, just like her dad. It must run in the family. Her brother is good at science, just like their mum.
- e. Phil is the apple of his dad's eye. His dad spends all his free time playing with him or planning stuff they can do together.
- f. Jane is passionate about old cars, just like her dad. She's a real chip off the old block and they often go to car rallies at the weekends.

5 & 6

Answers will vary.