

Modal verbs: should / shouldn't

Name	_____
Surname	_____
Class	_____
Date	_____

★1 Sottolinea l'opzione corretta in ogni frase.

- I should / shouldn't get more exercise, but I'm always so busy.
- Cyclists should / shouldn't ride their bike on the pavement.
- You should / shouldn't eat a lot of cakes and chocolate: it's bad for you.
- This T-shirt is very dirty: you should / shouldn't wash it.
- Sandra's always very tired: she should / shouldn't work so hard.
- You should / shouldn't go to bed early tonight: You've got an important exam tomorrow.
- If you have a problem, you should / shouldn't talk to your parents.
- People should / shouldn't feed animals in zoos.
- Eddie doesn't like his job: I think he should / shouldn't change it.
- This road is dangerous. You should / shouldn't drive so fast.

★2 Completa le frasi con should / shouldn't e i verbi tra parentesi.

- You _____ (eat) more vegetables: it's good for you.
- Children _____ (watch) TV all day.
- We _____ (help) mum with the housework.
- You _____ (be) horrible to your sister.
- Caroline _____ (spend) all her money on clothes. She's saving for her holiday.
- You _____ (go) to work if you're not well.
- Karin _____ (visit) her grandparents more often.
- Steven _____ (study) harder if he wants to pass his exam.
- People _____ (talk) on their mobiles when they're driving.
- You _____ (arrive) late at school.

★★3 Completa le frasi con should / shouldn't e uno dei verbi dati.

brush ▪ drink ▪ eat ▪ go ▪ phone ▪ stay ▪ take ▪ use ▪ wait ▪ wear

- You _____ smart clothes for your job interview.
- Liz needs to talk to you urgently. You _____ her.
- If you have a bad headache, you _____ some aspirin.
- Ben can't sleep well at night: he _____ so much coffee in the evening
- You _____ your brother's scooter without his permission.
- Laura is trying to lose weight: she _____ a lot of sweets!
- You _____ in the sun too long.
- Jack's not well today. He _____ to work.
- Alison's late again: do you think we _____ for her?
- You _____ your teeth after each meal.

★★4 Abbina i problemi (1-8) ai suggerimenti dati (1-10) e scrivi una frase usando should / shouldn't.

study hard ▪ try yoga ▪ look for another job ▪ join a gym use his car so much ▪ speak Italian in the English lesson go to bed late ▪ talk to the teacher ▪ apologize to him eat so many chips and burgers

- I can't do this exercise.
- I can't wake up in the mornings.
- Patrick hates his job.
- Neil never walks. He always drives.
- I can't relax.
- Clare was very rude to her granddad.
- I'd like to be fitter.
- Peter's got an important exam next week.
- I want to practise my English.
- Jane often has a stomach ache.

★★★5 TRANSLATION Traduci.

- Oggi fa molto freddo: dovresti metterti un maglione.
- Non dovresti passare così tanto tempo davanti alla televisione.
- I bambini non dovrebbero guardare programmi violenti.
- Non dovrete copiare gli esercizi.
- Non dovresti tornare a casa tardi stasera: domani hai un esame.
- I tuoi capelli sono molto lunghi: dovresti tagliarti.
- Andrea dovrebbe essere più educato con l'insegnante.
- Non dovresti usare il computer di tuo papà.
- Dovresti fare i compiti tutti i giorni.
- Non ho passato l'esame: che cosa dovrei fare?