

Possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns

Name	_____
Surname	_____
Class	_____
Date	_____

★ 1 Sottolinea l'aggettivo possessivo corretto.

- Christopher's Canadian. Toronto is his / her / their hometown.
- These are my cousins. Our / Their / My names are John and George.
- Do you know Peter and her / his / its sister Jane?
- We are from Nottingham. Their / Our / His address is 25 Albert Road.
- Frank's grandparents are very rich: her / his / their house is in one of the most fashionable streets in London.
- Jennifer's from New York, but his / her / its parents are from Los Angeles.
- Steven is talking to its / her / his teacher.
- They work in London, but my / its / their house's in Bristol.
- Venice is a very beautiful city. His / Their / Its Carnival is famous all over the world.
- This is Peter and this is his / our / your wife Daisy.

★ 2 Sottolinea l'alternativa corretta.

- A Is this your friends' house?
B No, their / theirs is the one opposite the park.
- This isn't my / mine mobile phone. My / Mine is red.
- A Are these your / yours trainers or Polly's?
B They're her / hers.
- Peru is in South America. It / Its capital city is Lima.
- Who's that woman over there? Is she our / ours new teacher?
- A Is this your mother's bag? B Yes, it is her / hers.
- We were born in Italy, but our / ours grandparents are from Morocco.
- This is Paula and this is his / her husband Charles.
- A Are these my / mine glasses?
B No, they're Molly's. Your / Yours are on the table.
- I like London, especially its / their theatres and museums.

★★ 3 Rispondi alle domande usando il pronome possessivo appropriato.

Is this David's car?
Yes, it's his.

- Is that your dictionary, Kate? Yes, _____.
- Is that your father's car? Yes, _____.
- Boys! Are these your rucksacks? No, _____.
- Are these our books? Yes, _____.

- Excuse me. Is this my coffee? No, _____.
- Are these Jack's glasses? Yes, _____.
- Is this Jennifer's mobile phone? No, _____.
- Are these your keys? Yes, _____.
- Is this your grandparents' house? No, _____.
- Is this Peter's calculator? No, _____.

★★ 4 Completa con gli aggettivi o i pronomi possessivi corretti.

- A Are these David's trousers?
B No, _____ are black.
- There's a new student in our class. Do you know _____ name?
- Betty, I can't find my purse. It's not in my bag. Is it in _____?
- A Girls, are these your textbooks?
B No, _____ are on the teacher's desk.
- A Is that Alan and Pat's house?
B No, _____ house is at the end of the road.
- A Is this Mary's rucksack?
B No, _____ is near the door.
- John and _____ sister come to my school.
- This new laptop isn't Amanda's. _____ is very old.
- Your room is very bright, _____ is dark: there's only one small window, but I like it.
- Paul and Gemma are visiting _____ grandparents today.

★★★ 5 TRANSLATION Traduci.

- A Questo borsellino è tuo?
B No, è di Wendy. Il mio è su quel tavolo.
- Posso usare la tua calcolatrice? Ho lasciato la mia a casa.
- La loro casa è più costosa della nostra.
- Gli insegnanti di mio fratello sono più giovani dei miei.
- Milano è famosa per i suoi negozi.
- La loro scuola è più grande, ma la vostra è più moderna.
- Io e mia sorella abbiamo entrambe i capelli corti, ma i suoi sono ricci e i miei sono lisci.
- A Questa è la nostra classe?
B No, la nostra è al primo piano.
- La camera di Clare è più bella della mia: la sua è grande e luminosa, la mia è piccola e buia.
- A Sono vostre queste biciclette?
B No, le nostre sono laggiù.