Most people have never really given politics much thought, which is a shame because politics affects everyone's lives. I ~~has~~ have been a political activist for the Green Party for 1999 and I have been involve in a number of campaigns. The most recent campaign that I have took part in was the campaign to cut down on the use of plastic bags in the high street. Plastic bags create a lot of waste, and it's unnecessary waste as we all have loads of bags at home, we just need to remember them when we go shopping. As a result of my campaigning many shops in my town have started to charge people for plastic bags, some customers are complained but most accept that they should pay or remember to bring their own bags!
