

too / (not) enough / too much / too many

| | |
|---------|-------|
| Name | _____ |
| Surname | _____ |
| Class | _____ |
| Date | _____ |

★ 1 Completa con too e gli aggettivi dati.

difficult ▪ expensive ▪ fast ▪ heavy ▪ hot late ▪ long ▪ small ▪ tired ▪ young

- A This is a size 10.
B It's _____. Can I have a size 12, please?
- You are only 15. You are _____ to drive.
- A Why didn't you buy those jeans?
B They were 150 Euros. They were _____.
- I can't do this exercise. It's _____.
- A Did you like the film?
B No, it was _____. It lasted three hours.
- A Why don't we go to the cinema?
B It's _____ now. The film starts in ten minute.
- We love going to Morocco, but we never go in summer. It's _____.
- Slow down: you're driving _____.
- A Are you going out tonight?
B No, I'm _____. I want to go to bed.
- I can't carry that suitcase. It's _____.

★ 2 Completa con enough e gli aggettivi dati.

big ▪ clever ▪ smart ▪ good ▪ long old ▪ rich ▪ strong ▪ tall ▪ warm

- There are 60 students on the course. This room isn't _____.
- You can't wear jeans for the job interview: they're not _____.
- I'd like to visit New Zealand, but my holiday is only one week: it's not _____.
- You can't go on holiday with your friends. You're only thirteen. You aren't _____.
- We can't buy this house. We're not _____.
- I can't get the book on the top shelf: I'm not _____.
- We can't go to the beach today: it's not _____.
- That box is very heavy. I can't carry it: I'm not _____.
- Patrick can't win the tennis match: he isn't _____.
- Martin can't get into Cambridge University: he isn't _____.

★ 3 Sottolinea l'alternativa corretta.

- You spend too many / too much hours in front of the TV.

- Martha spends too many / too much money.
- I can't come on holiday with you: I've got too many / too much work.
- There's too many / too much violence on TV.
- Sandra eats too many / too much cakes: it's not good for her.
- I don't like the party: there are too many / too much people.
- The test isn't difficult: you worry too many / too much.
- Of course, you can't sleep at night: you drink too many / too much coffee.
- You didn't pass the exam because you made too many / too much mistakes.
- I don't like this course: there are too many / too much students.

★★ 4 Completa con too, too much o too many.

- These trousers are _____ short: you can't wear them.
- I think that footballers earn _____.
- The teacher always gives us _____ homework.
- You bought _____ apples: we only need two for the cake.
- I don't like this soup: there's _____ salt in it.
- George can't come to the cinema with us: he's _____ busy.
- Tessa didn't go to school because she was _____ ill.
- I receive _____ emails every day: I can't answer all of them.
- A lot of students didn't pass the exam: it was _____ difficult.
- You buy _____ clothes: you don't really need them.

★★★ 5 TRANSLATION Traduci.

- Questa casa ha una camera da letto: non è abbastanza grande.
- Non posso bere questo caffè: è troppo caldo.
- C'erano troppe persone al concerto.
- Il tempo non è abbastanza bello per andare al mare.
- Non mi è piaciuto il film perché era troppo violento.
- Jane vuole fare la modella, ma non è abbastanza alta.
- David spende troppi soldi in videogiochi.
- Caroline non è andata all'università perché i suoi voti non erano abbastanza buoni.
- Non ho comprato quel cellulare perché era troppo caro.
- Passi troppo tempo al computer.